All Members of the Delta Family,

This year for the first time members of our Delta family will be celebrating the holidays in cities stretching from coast to coast, from border to border and throughout the Caribbean. Yet the spirit of this Christmas season -- summed up so long ago at that first Christmas in Bethlehem -- "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men," prevails beyond these miles and miles that separate us.

As you and your families prepare for the holiday festivities I want to extend season's greetings to all of you and best wishes for a joyous New Year.
